Jon Ohrn joins LEERINK Partners Investment Banking Team

Boston, MA - May 23, 2017 — LEERINK Partners, a leading healthcare investment bank, announced today that Jon Ohrn has joined its investment banking team as a Managing Director based in the firm's New York office.

Mr. Ohrn joins LEERINK Partners following a 13-year career at Deutsche Bank, most recently serving as a Managing Director of the Americas Mergers & Acquisitions team. Mr. Ohrn specializes in structuring extremely complex transactions involving tax matters, cross border situations and other forms of intricate consideration. Throughout his career, Mr. Ohrn has advised clients on numerous deals across industry sectors, including more than $50 billion in healthcare transactions. As part of LEERINK's senior advisory team, Mr. Ohrn will provide differentiated advice to benefit its clients.

"Adding a banker of Jon's caliber to our team enhances LEERINK Partners' ability to serve our clients across the healthcare industry," said Jim Boylan, President of LEERINK Partners and Head of Investment Banking. "Jon embodies the qualities and characteristics of a trusted advisor and is a natural fit to our firm's culture. I'm confident he will be exceptionally valuable to the continued growth of our clients and the firm."

"I am excited to join LEERINK Partners, an established leader in healthcare investment banking with impressive growth over the past five years," said Mr. Ohrn. "As the healthcare industry -- and our clients' needs -- continue to evolve, I look forward to working alongside this veteran team of professionals at LEERINK Partners to help our clients meet their strategic objectives."
